MILLER BACK AT WORK.

Government Bookbinders Let Him In "Under Protest."

Washington, July 28.—W. A. Miller, the assistant foreman of the bookbinding department of the government printing office, has resumed his duties. Miller was assigned to his work in charge of men who have been waging a vigorous campaign against him, but these men, acting under the decision of the union, continued at work technically "under protest."

Secretary Dougherty of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders has arrived here and has consulted with the local union, President Tatum of the brotherhood being detained by illness. No radical action of any sort is now contemplated. Public Printer Palmer and President Barrett of the local bookbinders' union differ in their statements as to the consideration of the charges.

Mr. Palmer said that the charges are not being investigated, and would not be except under certain circumstances, which he declined to specify. Barrett says the charges are under investigation, pending which the union does not intend "to force the public printer's hand." It is also stated that if the public printer does not sustain the charges the union will appeal directly to the president to remove Miller on the charges on which his expulsion from the union was based.
